An Evening with The Three Doctors

Drs. Sampson Davis, Rameck Hunt and George Jenkins -- fondly known as The Three Doctors -- serve as an extraordinary model of leadership for anyone who's been through any kind of life challenge or major hardship.

As teenage boys growing up on the tough inner-city streets of Newark, New Jersey these three kindred spirits made a pact: they would stick together - go to college - and medical school - and become doctors. Surrounded by negative influences and having few positive role models, this was not an easy feat. Now several years later, these men have overcome countless obstacles and proudly bear the title of doctor, serving as the face of health and education for youth and families across the country.

Today, Dr. Hunt is a Board certified internist at University Medical Center at Princeton and Assistant Professor of Medicine at Robert Wood Johnson Medical School. Dr. Jenkins serves as Assistant Professor of Clinical Dentistry at Columbia University. Dr. Davis is a Board Certified Emergency Medicine Physician at St. Michaels Medical Center and Raritan Bay Medical Center. Davis is also a consultant for the Violence Prevention Institute focusing on gang awareness and preventative medicine in Essex County. The doctors have authored three inspiring books about their lives: The Pact, for adults, and We Beat the Streets, for children. Their latest book The Bond, highlights their relationships with their estranged fathers and was released in October of 2007.

Doctors George Jenkins, Rameck Hunt and Sampson Davis deliver a message of hope and inspiration everywhere they go. Their key messages; Never underestimate the power of self-reliance and inner strength; Attach a timeline & devise a strategy for achieving your goals; Finally, surround yourself with like-minded and positive people.
