Community Prep & Fleming's Announce Philanthropic Partnership

PROVIDENCE, RI – April 7, 2009 – Community Preparatory School, an independent, non-profit school that serves Greater Providence area students in grades three through eight, proudly announces a philanthropic partnership with Fleming's Prime Steakhouse and Wine Bar. This is the second year Fleming's will support Community Prep's Golf Classic through a generous donation of certificates to the Providence establishment. The Golf Classic will be held on June 9, 2009. Fleming's also has plans to sponsor Community Prep's Founders Society Dinner in August.

"Fleming's has made a long-term commitment to supporting local community organizations like Community Preparatory School," says Fleming's Operating Partner Michael Edwards. "It has been our continuing goal to fulfill some of the needs facing our local community through what we do best – creating memorable evenings and sharing our expertise. We are proud to support this year's Community Prep Golf Tournament through the donation of Fleming's certificates."

Community Prep's Head of School, Dan Corley, says he is delighted about Fleming's generosity, especially during these challenging economic times.

"We are so honored to form a philanthropic partnership with an outstanding establishment like Fleming's," added Corley. "Our school represents a crossroads where a truly diverse group of students come together to learn, share, achieve and thrive, knowing they will go on to some of the best high schools and colleges in the country. Forming a community partnership with an organization like Fleming's allows us to keep our mission going strong."
